RESPONSE TO CORONAVIRUS
DISEASE (COVID-19)

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER 2020-9

On July 6, 2020, the Pahrump Justice Court issued an order temporarily closing the Court due to court personnel's possible exposure to a person who tested positive for Covid-19. The issue is now resolved and the Pahrump Justice Court re-opened for business on July 20, 2020 at 7:00 a.m.. Effective immediately, the court will resume operations as set forth in Administrative Order 2020-5, with the exception of paragraph 6, as the court has resumed scheduling jury trials.

All other provisions set forth in the Court's previous Covid-19 Administrative Orders shall remain in effect until further notice. This Administrative Order is posted on the Pahrump Justice Court website, and the Nye County website. Copies may be obtained by emailing the Court at pjc@pahrumpjusticecourt.com, or by contacting the court at (775) 751-7050.

This order will be re-evaluated for any necessary changes as Governor Sisolak issues new directives.
